

Sea Alarm 2013 first quarter newsletter

Sea Alarm Newsletter: First Quarter 2013

Sea Alarm has been busy in the first three months of 2013. Our global response network continues to grow, as does our collaboration with European oiled wildlife responders and we've added a new staff member. Read more about our activities below and feel free to share with newsletter with your friends.

Welcome to Sea Alarm Paul Kelway!

Paul Kelway, who brings us his international oil spill response experience with the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW) and International Bird Rescue, is our new Global Preparedness Coordinator...

Read more...

Wildlife Rescue Centre Ostend-Sea Alarm sign MOU

As part of Sea Alarm's ongoing efforts to enhance collaborative, professional oiled wildlife response, an MOU with Belgium's Wildlife Rescue Centre Ostend (WRCO) was signed in January. Read more...

POSOW Oiled Wildlife Response Manual now online

Sea Alarm, the Centre Vétérinaire de la Faune Sauvage et des Écosystèmes (CVFSE) and WWF Finland, have developed an Oiled Wildlife Response Manual for the POSOW

European Oiled Wildlife Responders meet in Hamburg

In March Wildtierstation Hamburg hosted the European Oiled Wildlife Responders' meeting, which was attended by Sea Alarm, the RSPCA, ProBird and Wildlife Rescue Centre Ostend.

Read more...

project. Read more..

Oiled wildlife response meetings held in France

Sea Alarm visited Alca Torda Wildlife Recovery Centre and Le Centre Vétérinaire de la Faune Sauvage et des Ecosystèmes (CVFSE) to discuss cooperative response potential.

Read more...

forward to a friend

Copyright © 2013, Sea Alarm Foundation, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences